Bylaws

I. Composition of the Staff Senate

A. The Staff Senate is comprised of elected staff members representing each Division in the 1000-7000 broad bands as follows:

- Academic Affairs
- Finance & Operations
- President
- Research & Economic Development
- Student Affairs and Diversity
- School of Medicine & Health Sciences
- University & Public Affairs

B. Membership is based on approximately 3% of eligible staff in each Division rounding up to a minimum of one representative from each Division, to be reviewed annually prior to the general election.

C. An eligible member is a full-time or part-time benefited staff employee who is not on probation at the time of the nomination and is a UND employee on the Grand Forks campus.

D. The Officers shall be elected from the membership of the Senate.

E. The Director of Human Resources or the Director’s designated representative shall serve as a non-voting ex-officio member of the Staff Senate and Executive Committee.

F. Distance campuses with more than twenty (20) employees are encouraged to designate a Distance Coordinator, who will serve as a non-voting ex-official liaison of the Staff Senate.

II. Terms of Office and Election of Senate Members

A. Senate membership shall be for a three (3) year term with approximately one-third (1/3) of the members elected by April 15 every year.

1. A member shall not serve more than two (2) consecutive full terms.

2. Exception to A.: If a member is elected to Vice President/President Elect, they shall be granted additional years beyond two consecutive to complete the terms of President and Immediate Past President.
B. Terms of regularly elected senators begin with the first meeting in May. For Senators elected or appointed after the regular elections, their term begins at the next available meeting.

1. During and after the Staff Senate elections, if there are not enough members to fill the various senator positions in a Division, the Constitution, Bylaws, and Elections Committee shall follow Section VIII: Interim Vacancies to fill the vacant positions.

C. University employees identified in Section I shall be eligible to vote.

D. An eligible candidate can be self-nominated or be nominated by another University employee. Divisions will also provide nominations of at least the number of openings in their respective Division.

E. Senators are expected to attend all Staff Senate meetings. Senators shall contact the Membership Officer directly, to record their absence prior to an anticipated absence or as soon as possible after an unexpected absence of any Staff Senate meeting.

F. A Senator who has had three (3) absences in any twelve (12) month period or fraction thereof is not in good standing and will be contacted by the Staff Senate President and that Senator’s position may be vacated by a vote of the Executive Committee. Attendance will be taken at each Staff Senate meeting.

G. Senate members who transfer from one Division to another within the University will continue to represent their original Division for the purposes of Senate membership for the balance of their term or until the next scheduled general election, whichever occurs first. Should a Senator move into a 0000 staff broad band position they will also be allowed to complete the current year.

III. Election of Officers/Members-at-Large

A. The Staff Senate will nominate and vote annually for the following Officers:

1. Vice President/President Elect
2. Secretary
3. Treasurer
4. Membership Officer
5. Historian
6. Members-at-Large three (3)

B. The Officers’ terms are one (1) year.

C. The Vice President/President-Elect will automatically assume the office of the President.

D. The President will automatically assume the Office of the Immediate Past President.

E. The Vice President/President Elect nominations shall be conducted at the regular March meeting of the full Senate.

1. Nominations will be accepted at the March meeting with a written document sent to the Senate one week prior to the April meeting.
2. All candidates must be present to give an oral presentation at the April meeting. The election will be held following all presentations.

F. At the regular April meeting, nominations for Staff Senate executive officers numbered two through five above shall be made through motions from the Staff Senate. Any Senate Member who is nominated for an office must either be present at the meeting to accept the nomination or must have sent to the President for prior acceptance of the nomination in writing before the meeting.

G. Members-at-Large will be elected at the May meeting when newly elected senators are in attendance.

H. The Staff Senate will vote; a simple majority vote determines the winner. Regarding the election of the Vice President/President elect, if a senator is not able to be present at the meeting, an absentee ballot can be requested from the Staff Senate President and must be submitted to the President at least two hours prior to the meeting. The Staff Senate President has the authority to make the decision to accept or deny the absentee ballot based on criteria such as: the ballot has been timely requested and submitted; whether the member is in good standing; work related meetings; and staff senate related meetings, etc. The Constitution, Bylaws, and Elections Committee shall tally the votes.

IV. Removal of Officers

A senator may, in good faith, request a vote of competency for an Officer when an Officer is unable or does not properly perform the duties of the office, e.g. does not attend meetings or fulfill duties described for that office, by the following:
1. Submit in writing to the Staff Senate President the reasons why a vote should be taken.
2. The President will consult with the Officer in question and allow the opportunity for a written response.
3. The President will present the request and response to the Executive Committee for review.
4. If the Executive Committee determines the request is valid, a vote by the Executive Committee will be conducted. If an Officer does not receive a majority vote of competency, the Executive Committee shall declare the seat vacant.
5. Following the vote, the President will inform the Officer and also the Senator(s) who asked for the vote of competency of the outcome of the Executive Committee's decision.
6. If a request for a vote of competency involves the President, the Past President will fulfill the President's duties listed in this section.

2. All vacancies shall be communicated to all UND staff via available media and documented in the Senate minutes. The Senate Constitution, Bylaws, and Elections Committee shall accept nominations of interested and eligible staff employees to fill the vacancies and shall bring nominations to the floor in order of interest.

2. If the vacancy is within the three months preceding the regular election cycle, the Constitution, Bylaws, and Elections Committee has the option not to fill the vacancy.

3. The President will write to the new Staff Senator and indicate the length of the term and when it expires.

B. Immediate Past President Vacancy

1. If the office of the Immediate Past President becomes vacant, the Executive Committee shall appoint one of the current members of the Executive Committee to complete the term.

C. President Vacancy

1. If the Office of the President is vacated on or before October 31st, the Vice President/President Elect will assume the office of President and this will serve as their Present term.

2. If the Office of the President is vacated after October 31st, the Vice President/President elect will assume the office of the President for the remainder of the term and resume in the position of President through the term they were originally slated for.

D. Vice President/President Elect Vacancy

1. If the Office of the Vice President/President Elect is vacated on or before October 31st, there shall be a nomination/presentation/election process. The Past President will remain in office for an additional term.

2. If the Office of Vice President/President Elect is vacated after October 31st, the Executive Committee will appoint an interim Vice President/President Elect to fill the remaining months of office. At the next primary election, the Office of Vice President will proceed as the bylaws state. The Past President will remain in office for an additional term.

E. All Other Executive Committee Vacancies

1. If any Executive Committee Position outside of those listed in (B) – (D) become vacant, the position shall be filled through a special election at the first regular Staff Senate meeting following the vacancy.

IX. Meetings and Actions

A. The Senate shall normally meet in regular session monthly or on call of the Senate President.

B. A simple majority (50% +1) of the Senate members eligible to vote shall constitute a quorum for a meeting.

C. Members must be present to vote, except as noted in Article III.
D. In the conduct of the meetings, Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised shall prevail, unless superseded by the Bylaws of the University of North Dakota Staff Senate.

E. Meetings of the Senate shall be open.

F. A record of proceedings at meetings shall be kept and shall be made available by the secretary of the Senate upon request.

G. The agenda will be circulated one week prior to the meeting and any additions will be accepted up to and including the day before the meeting.

H. The Senate shall invite the President and Vice Presidents of the University of North Dakota to all Staff Senate meetings. The Senate shall consider any recommendations made at any time by the President of UND.

X. Amendments to the Bylaws

Amendments to the Bylaws can be proposed in writing from any Staff Senator to the Constitution, Bylaws, and Elections Committee. The Constitution, Bylaws, and Elections Committee will present proposed amendments to the Senate for a first reading with a vote to follow at the next meeting. Amendments shall be approved by a simple majority vote of the Senate. The President of the University shall receive a copy of all changes indicating what changes have been made/approved.

XI. Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the organization, all assets remaining after payment of all costs and expenses of such dissolution shall be turned over to the President of the University.
