

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA Commencement

Dear Graduate,

Congratulations on your upcoming graduation from the University of North Dakota!

Here are some details concerning this winter's commencement ceremony that you, your family, and friends will find helpful.

- There will be 3 different ceremonies for Winter Commencement this year and all ceremonies will be held at the Chester Fritz Auditorium on the UND campus.
 - December 14th at 3:00 pm - Professional and Graduate degrees.
 - December 15th at 1 :00 pm - Undergraduate degrees in Arts & Sciences, Engineering & Mines, Medicine & Health Sciences and Nursing & Professional Disciplines.
 - December 15th at 4:00 pm - Undergraduate degrees in Aerospace Sciences, Business & Public Administration, Education & Human Development.
- Bring your academic apparel and gather in the lower level of the Chester Fritz Auditorium 45-60 minutes before your ceremony.
- Each ceremony should be 60-70 minutes in length.
- Family and friends do not need tickets for guest seating.
- If you have guests that need special seating, please contact us to arrange visual, hearing and mobility accommodations.
- The ceremony will telecast all ceremonies live on Grand Forks Cable Channel 3. For those family and friends out of the area, the ceremonies will also be webcast and available for viewing by going to UND.edu on the day of the ceremony and following the instructions given.
- Like the UND Facebook Page, facebook.com/undevents, to receive announcements about the upcoming ceremonies.

Be sure to visit UND's web site at UND.edu/commencement for up-to-the-minute information about commencement. If you have other questions about graduation, contact the UNO Office of Ceremonies & University Events at 701.777.2731.

We hope your days at UND were memorable and congratulations again!
