Doctoral and Master’s Students

DETAILS FOR COMMENCEMENT DAY

- UND Summer Commencement will be held Friday, August 3 at 3:00 p.m. in the Chester Fritz Auditorium. The ceremony should be about 90 minutes in length. Graduates who participate should plan to stay for the entire ceremony.

- Remember to pick up your UND custom academic regalia rented from the University Bookstore. The regalia will be ready for pick up by 12 Noon on July 30. To learn how to wear your tam and gown, please refer to the video appearing on und.edu/commencement/academicregalia site. Your gown and hood must be returned after the ceremony to the Bookstore tables located in the lower level of the Auditorium.

- There will be no practice for the ceremony. Student Marshals and Staff Graduation Assistants will be on hand to guide you to where you must be.

- Be sure to arrive in the Line-Up Room (lower level of the Chester Fritz Auditorium) with your cap, gown, tassel and hood 50-60 minutes before the ceremony.
  - Pick up your name card from the School of Graduate Studies then line up behind your degree sign and in alpha order. This is the card you will hand to the stage announcer to have your name read.
  - If you have a name that is difficult to pronounce, locate the announcer positioned in the front of the line-up room. You can work with this person on a phonetic pronunciation of your name.

- Doors to guest seating open at 2 p.m. Family and friends do not need tickets.

- Free parking is available south of the Chester Fritz Auditorium.

- Each graduate will have a posed photo taken by Lifetouch Photography and another picture taken with President Mark Kennedy as he presents the diploma scroll. Doctoral students will also have a photo taken as they are hooded by their advisor.

- If you or your guests need special seating, please contact us to arrange visual, hearing and mobility accommodations. Call 701.777.2731 to make your request.

- The ceremony will be telecast live on the UND Facebook page and webcast on UND.edu the day of the ceremony.

- Visit UND’s website at UND.edu/commencement for up-to-the-minute information about commencement. If you have other questions about graduation, contact the UND Office of Ceremonies & University Events at 701.777.2731.

  We hope your days at UND were memorable. Congratulations!
