Re: Study-A-Thon Fall 2014

2 Whereas, the Student Senate of the University of North Dakota supports the fostering of academic excellence, and

4 Whereas, this represents the 17th Study-A-Thon at the University of North Dakota, to be held on December 14, 2014, and

6 Whereas, the popularity and resulting growth of this event has exceeded the financial capabilities of the Greek Council, and

8 Whereas, any other sources of funding that may have been raised for this event must be used before funding from the Student Senate may be used, and

10 Therefore, be it moved that the Student Senate of the University of North Dakota supports the objectives and purposes of the Study-A-Thon and encourages all students on campus to participate, and

12 Therefore, be it further moved that the Student Senate allocate up to $3,000 from the University Programming Council, Memorial Union account for the purpose of prizes, food, beverages, and advertising for the Study-A-Thon, and

14 Therefore, be it further moved that the Interfraternity Council and the Panhellenic Council use the logo of the Student Government of the University of North Dakota in appropriate advertisements and promotional literature, and 18 Therefore, be it furthest moved that all receipts be submitted to the Student Body Treasurer no later than January 31st, 2015 along with any remaining allocated funds.

Student Body President, Tanner Franklin
