UNFINISHED BUSINESS
A. SB1415-17
V.P. Johnson introduced SB1415-17, Wacipi (Powwow) Buffalo Feed, to the Senate floor.

RJ Morin addressed the Senate, and explained the event. He said that it was traditional at Powwows to feed those who attend as a thank you and to extend hospitality to them.

Senator Ladner asked how many people typically attended the Buffalo Feed.

RJ Morin replied that last year, about 700 dancers attended, and over 1000 spectators. Many students also attend the feed.

Senator Larson asked why these funds are not included in the $20,000 line item from SOFA.

RJ Morin replied that since it was a food event, it was treated different by SOFA.

MOTION
Senator Nelson made a motion to approve SB1415-17.

Senator Brown seconded the motion.
DISCUSSION

President Franklin said this was treated differently because the group had already been awarded monies in a previous Senate allocation.

Senator Kopp asked that since the line item was moved over to SOFA, would this even be funded through SOFA in the future?

President Franklin replied yes. He then asked RJ Morin if the organization had a plan for the monies currently in the UNDIA account, and if it was enough to cover the event without Student Government help.

RJ Morin said that it took about $106,000 to fund the entire powwow, and some of the funds in UNDIA went to funding that.

K. Malaferre, advisor for UNDIA, said that the monies in UNDIA also went towards various events that UNDIA hosts. These include guest speakers, educational events, picnics, etc.

Senator Beyer asked if the speakers could disclose how much was in the UNDIA account.

President Franklin replied that there was about $113,000 in the account.

D. Nelson, another advisor for the UNDIA, said that $30,000 of the $113,000 came from the President’s Office, and $20,000 of it came from Student Government.

VOTE

(00:37:59) MOTION TO APPROVE SB1415-17 CARRIED.

NEW BUSINESS

No new business.

PUBLIC COMMENT/ANNOUNCEMENTS

RJ Morin thanked the Senate body for approving the bill.

C. Gerhardt asked the Senators to think about different ideas for the union, including a viewing party for a hockey game.
