GUEST SPEAKERS
Provost DiLorenzo spoke on the Chester Fritz Library updates. The master planning process will begin soon, and asked Julie Anderson to give a brief update from student involvement.

Julie Anderson spoke on the collaborations between student government and the administration regarding this project. Student suggestions are being taken. She discussed the ideas for new study spaces, in addition to new common spaces.

Senator Larson said that the focus time conflicts with the student government banquet.

J. Anderson said they would change the time.

Senator Clark said that he has heard many concerns regarding the retention of the library’s online resources, and asked if Anderson could comment on that.

Anderson replied that they wanted to retain all of their resources, and it could be further discussed at the focus group.

Vice President Reesor commented that these comments are part of the effort to better communicate with student government, and give them regular updates. She announced that May 2nd will be the Big Event. Additionally, ARH will do an outdoor concert behind McCannel Hall. She also discussed an event held for seniors who are graduating, giving them the opportunity to speak with alumni’s and other graduates. Additionally, DeStress Fest had been moved to May 8.

PUBLIC COMMENT/ANNOUNCEMENTS

C. Gerhardt updated the Senate on the door access aspect of the Union project. It will cost about $33,000 to complete three doors. Senate had committed about $12,000 for the project. She also said that students have been saying they like the extended hours of the union, but not necessarily the 24 hours. Therefore, they were thinking of keeping the Union open until about 2 or 3 am, and open at 6 am. SFAC had awarded monies for those hours. As such, Gerhardt commented that she was not inclined to go forward with the $33,000 doors since they will be able to staff the building with the extended hours. Unless the senators had concerns otherwise, they were not going to move forward with the card access doors.

ADJOURNMENT

The 4/26/15 meeting of the Student Senate was adjourned without objection at 6:38 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
