Re: Student Government Budget for FY17

Whereas, the University of North Dakota Student Government exists to serve as an established representative system of self-government, and,
Whereas, the University of North Dakota Student Government also exists in order to ensure students participate in an effective role in University Government, and,
Whereas, Student Government receives student activity fee allocations to serve students in an effective manner, and,
Whereas, the Student Senate is responsible for the financial oversight of Student Government, and,
Whereas, the Presidential Finance Committee was established to assist the Student Body President in preparation and planning of a yearly budget proposal, and,
Whereas, an update of the budget allows an analysis of the most efficient allocation of disbursable funds in order to ensure the financial stability and future of the University of North Dakota Student Government, and,
Whereas, the Presidential Finance Committee, at the request of the Student Fee Advisory Committee has created a proposed budget to be considered with this bill, and,

Therefore, be it moved that the attached FY17 budget for Student Government be approved by the University of North Dakota Student Senate.
