Re: Landon Bahl Mentorship Program Committee

Whereas, Student Senate looks for ways to help its constituents, and

Whereas, Incoming freshman students may not know of additional resources on campus and/or need help with class schedules, branching out to different student organizations and making friendships, and

Whereas, Student Senate is made up of elected officials that were once incoming freshman. There is a need for a select number of freshman to be mentored to be successful, functioning college students, and

Whereas, The Landon Bahl Mentorship Program would pair freshman students with student government officials of the same college. The goal of the program being a positive and effective relationship between the mentor and mentee including advice on all different topics of college, and

Therefore, be it moved that UND Student Government appoint a committee comprised of at least five student government officials along with a chair of the committee to discuss the implications and feasibility of said mentorship program.
