Re: Support for Current and Former UND Students Who Participated in the 2018 Winter Olympic Games

Whereas, UND Student Government and University of North Dakota care deeply about current and former students’ accomplishments, and

Whereas, it is important to recognize and highlight the accomplishments of students and alumni, and

Whereas, the 2018 Winter Olympic Games took place from February 8 to February 25 in PyeongChang, South Korea, and

Whereas, the Winter Olympic Games garner international attention and symbolize hard work, dedication, and sportsmanship, showcasing the best athletes from around the world, and

Whereas, current student Ludvig Hoff (Norway) and alumna: Joe Polo (USA); Jocelyne Lamoureux-Davidson (USA); Monique Lamoureux-Morando (USA); Chay Genoway (Canada); Johanna Fällman (Sweden); Michelle Karvinen (Finland); Emma Nuutinen (Finland); and Susanna Tapani (Finland) competed in the 2018 Winter Olympic Games, representing their respective countries proudly, and

Whereas, Joe Polo won a gold medal in men’s curling, as well as Jocelyne Lamoureux-Davidson and Monique Lamoureux-Morando winning gold medals in women’s ice hockey, and

Whereas, Chay Genoway, Michelle Karvinen, Emma Nuutinen, and Susanna Tapani won bronze medals in men’s and women’s ice hockey respectively;

Therefore, be it resolved that on behalf of the students of the University of North Dakota, the Student Senate congratulates these Olympians on their incredible performances and achievements.
